CHAPTER 1: WARM-UP

WARM-UP

SLIDE 1 — Time Management

Speaking Notes: Print and/or review the rubric with the learners. The rubric outlines what areas/objectives learners will cover.

 Materials Needed: Rubric (printable)

SLIDE 2 — Self-Reflection

Speaking Notes: Option 1 (Printable): Give each student a copy of the Time Management Self-Assessment Worksheet to reflect on strengths & weaknesses in their current time management. Option 2 (Virtual): Click on the link to take the “How Good is Your Time Management” online test. Have learners use the “calculate my total” button and then read their results taking note of their strengths and weaknesses as each relates to different areas of time management. The five stars next to each area rate how well they did on those time management areas. Encourage learners to share what they found their strengths and weaknesses were as identified by the self-assessment.

Note: They do not need to log-in to see their results — they can click “no thanks, close this window” at the bottom of the pop-up window.*

CHAPTER 2: INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

SLIDE 3 — Module Objective Section Title

Speaking Notes: This is the chapter title slide. Use it to transition into the introduction section.

SLIDE 4 — We All Have 24 Hours

Speaking Notes: Set the purpose for the lesson. Time is a resource distributed equally to all people. Learners will be introduced to the idea that time is a resource to be utilized wisely. They will understand the importance of time in setting goals. The goal of this module is to motivate learners to accomplish day-to-day tasks, using their time wisely, to achieve their long-range goals. At the conclusion of this module, learners will understand time management and its importance at home and on the job. They will be able to identify uncontrollable events in their lives and develop coping strategies to deal with those events effectively and efficiently. They will be able to distinguish between urgent and important events and develop strategies to deal with each type of event.

SLIDE 5 — Goal Statement Big Statement

Speaking Notes: Emphasize the core goal: “The goal of effective time management is to maximize productivity and achieve your goals.” Let this statement resonate before moving on.

CHAPTER 3: SETTING PRIORITIES

PRESENTATION

SLIDE 6 — Setting Priorities Section Title

Speaking Notes: Transition slide into the priorities section.

SLIDE 7 — What Are Priorities?

Speaking Notes: Discuss how to identify our personal priorities. Priorities are things that are more important than others and need to be dealt with first. Priorities establish the sequence in which things should be done.

SLIDE 8 — The Big Rocks of Time

Speaking Notes: Introduce the Big Rocks concept. Alternatively, learners could read The Big Rocks of Time handout, or instructors could get the materials needed — rocks, gravel, sand, jar — and do the demonstration themselves. Distribute “Big Rocks Time Management Worksheet” for learners to identify their own “big rocks, marbles, sand, and water.”

 Materials Needed: Big Rocks Worksheet (printable)

SLIDE 9 — Watch: The Big Rocks of Time Video Slide

Speaking Notes: Play the embedded video directly in the presentation. Discuss the video content afterward — ask learners to identify what their “big rocks” are.

 Video: Covey's Big Rocks — Scheduling Your Priorities

SLIDE 10 — You've Identified Your Priorities...Now What? Big Statement

Speaking Notes: Discuss what follows after identifying priorities. Transition into the tools and strategies section.

CHAPTER 4: TOOLS & STRATEGIES

PRESENTATION

SLIDE 11 — Tools & Strategies Section Title

Speaking Notes: Transition slide into the practical tools section.

SLIDE 12 — Set SMART Goals

Speaking Notes: Review SMART Goal principles. SMART Goal-setting directly relates to effective time management and setting priorities. Writing down your goals is important because it increases your chances of achieving them, provides a sense of commitment, and improves focus.

SLIDE 13 — Utilize a Flow Chart

Speaking Notes: Distribute a copy of the “Get Your Priorities Straight” Flow Chart to learners. It can be modified or customized for practical daily or weekly use.

 Materials Needed: Priorities Flow Chart (printable)

SLIDE 14 — The Eisenhower Matrix

Speaking Notes: Try the Eisenhower Matrix if you: find yourself running around putting out fires all day; are busy but don't feel like your work has a high impact; have long-term goals but no time or energy to make progress on them; have a hard time delegating and/or saying no.

SLIDE 15 — Daily & Weekly Planners

Speaking Notes: The Daily & Weekly Planner are included as supplemental printable material with this lesson for students to try. Keeping the day's and week's activities in view can help ensure that priority tasks get accomplished and help find free time.

 Materials Needed: Daily Planner, Weekly Planner (printable)

SLIDE 16 — Family To-Do Lists & Delegation

Speaking Notes: Creating family to-do lists and delegating age-appropriate chores to children can help create more quality time for everyone. It builds self-esteem, teaches vital life skills like responsibility, time management, and work ethic, and fosters a sense of belonging and teamwork.

CHAPTER 5: COMMON CHALLENGES

PRESENTATION

SLIDE 17 — Common Challenges Section Title

Speaking Notes: Transition slide. Highlight common challenges to effective time management.

SLIDE 18 — Time Management Dangers

Speaking Notes: Despite our best efforts, there are major challenges to managing time wisely. These include: Distractions, Procrastination, Multitasking, Overcommitment/Inability to say “No”, and Lack of Structure and Routine. Have learners click the flip cards to explore each danger.

SLIDE 19 — Technology Distractions

Speaking Notes: Failing to manage distractions is a key challenge. Group Activity: Each person in class can count the notifications they have received on their phones today. After watching the video on the next slide, include time for self-reflection on what practical tips learners plan to use.

SLIDE 20 — Watch: Technology Distractions Video Slide

Speaking Notes: Play the embedded video. After watching, facilitate discussion about strategies learners will use to stay focused and manage technology distractions.

 Video: The Battle for Your Time — Exposing the Costs of Social Media (TEDx)

SLIDE 21 — Procrastination

Speaking Notes: Help learners realize that procrastination is simply a habit and that the cycle can be broken!

SLIDE 22 — Watch: Procrastination Video Slide

Speaking Notes: Play the embedded video about breaking the procrastination cycle. Discuss practical strategies afterward.

 Video: How I Cut My Screen Time by 80%

SLIDE 23 — Multitasking

Speaking Notes: Multitasking is often seen as a strength, but it may actually have a negative impact on our productivity and time management. It can lead to inefficiency, potential mistakes, lack of creativity, memory issues, distractibility, and chronic stress.

SLIDE 24 — Watch: Multitasking Video Slide

Speaking Notes: Play the embedded video. Discuss how learners can focus on single-tasking to improve their productivity.

 Video: How to Manage Your Time Better

SLIDE 25 — Over-Commitment

Speaking Notes: Ask learners to identify situations where they struggle with saying no or over-committing themselves. Review polite, yet effective, ways to say “No.”

SLIDE 26 — Lack of Structure & Routine

Speaking Notes: Discuss the importance of building daily habits and routines.

Additional Resource: The free audiobook “Make Your Bed” by Admiral William H. McRaven

 Link: Make Your Bed — Full Audiobook \(YouTube\)

SLIDE 27 — Watch: Atomic Habits Video Slide

Speaking Notes: Play the embedded Atomic Habits video excerpt. Discuss how small habit changes can lead to big improvements in time management.

 Video: Covey’s Big Rocks — Scheduling Your Priorities

CHAPTER 6: EVALUATION
EVALUATIONSLIDE 28 — Check Your Knowledge Section Title

Speaking Notes: Transition slide into the evaluation section.

SLIDE 29 — Exit Ticket

Speaking Notes: Distribute The Exit Ticket (Pre/Post Test) to learners and ask them to complete it. Provide learners the opportunity to share their answers. Key questions: What did you learn? What tips do you plan to use to better manage your time?

 Materials Needed: Pre/Post Test, Rubric (printable)

ACHAPTER 7: APPLICATIONAPPLICATIONSLIDE 30 — Put It Into Practice Section Title

Speaking Notes: Transition slide into the application section.

SLIDE 31 — How Will You Put Your TIME to Use?

Speaking Notes: Do a Round Robin — Post the Stand and Deliver questions. Each learner will print one of the questions on a blank sheet of paper. (If you have more than 5 learners, put them in groups. Adjust however you see fit, so it works with your class.) Each group member must choose a different question. Learners pass their papers to the right. The next member writes his/her response to the question. They again pass their papers to the right. Repeat until the learners receive their original paper. They read all the responses and write summaries of what they have learned. Facilitate a whole-class discussion in which learners read some of their summaries.

1. What are the most important concepts you learned from this module?
2. How will you use this information?
3. What other steps can you take to learn more about this topic?
4. With whom can you share what you've learned and what would you tell him or her?
5. What is one question you still have about this topic?

SLIDE 32 — Own Your Time Closing

Speaking Notes: Congratulate learners on completing the lesson. End with the motivational quote and encourage learners to own their time going forward.
